

CHOIR DRESS

CLASS A VESTMENTS

The ANGLICAN CASSOCK is a double-breasted vestment styled with deep cuffs and a two-inch collar opening. Fashioned from a comfortable, durable, wrinkle-free blend of polyester and rayon. The cassock is finished with quality features such as lightly padded natural shoulders, fully lined torso, full back/side pleats and two neatly concealed side opening. A four-inch band cincture finished with hand-knotted fringe comes with this cassock.

The AMERICAN SURPLICE features a moderately full body, gathered onto a trim round yoke. Raglan sleeves provide ample fullness. The garment is proportioned to fall below the knee. The round yoke surplice is offered in a cool, lightweight machine washable polyester and cotton broadcloth.

A symbol of office, the BLACK TIPPET is made with nine inch wide panels containing sewn-in pleats and is finished with plain ends to a length proportioned to fall below the knee. The Seal of the Church of God in Christ is embroidered on the Tippet.

The PECTORAL CROSS is constructed of pure sterling silver and suspended on a thin black cord of fine woven material. This cross is specifically regulated for all ordained Elders and Pastors. It can be worn exposed with the Ceremonial Vestment or in the left shirt pocket with the Civic Attire.
